

Financial Aid Repeat

Now, when counting credits to determine aid eligibility for that semester, repeated classes will be excluded from the financial aid eligible credit count. This may mean less Pell Grant if the eligible credits are less than 12 credit hours. No subsidized or unsubsidized loans can be awarded if the financial aid eligible credits are less than 6 credits for undergraduate and graduate students.