

Policy Name
Policy Number
Effective Date
Administrative
Unit

---

1.0 Policy Statement

Costs incurred for materials, supplies, and fabricated parts allowable. Materials and supplies used for the performance costs. In the specific case of computing device essential and allocable, but not solely dedicated and other supplies must be allocable, receive

2.0 Purpose

This policy outlines the University's policy on Uniform Guidance Code §200.453, which state are allowable costs when necessary to carry

3.0 Definitions

3.1 Supplies – All tangible personal property computing device is a supply if the cost established by the non-Federal entity length of its useful life. §200.94

3.2 Computing Devices - Machines use other information electronically, including and receiving, or storing electronic information

3.3 Equipment – All tangible personal property useful life of more than one year and of the capitalization level established $5,000. §200.33

4.0 Additional Information

4.1 Requests to purchase materials, supplies award/project may be disallowed to

4.2 Requests to purchase computing device award/project to ensure proper close the agency and the Vice President (

4.3 Unused materials and supplies with a total value exceeding $5,000, may be utilized to support other Federally funded projects if needed upon the completion of the project or sold. However, the Federal government is entitled to be reimbursed at the current market value. §200.314

5.0 Employee Adherence

Employees are required to adhere to these guidelines. Willful disregard of this policy shall be considered non-compliance and may result in a formal reprimand up to and including termination. The information stated in this policy pertains and applies to applic